Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Alan L. Morris has devoted his life to the betterment of his communities, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which makes South Dakota a great place to live; and,

Whereas, Alan has served since 1976 in the communities of Pierre, Watertown, and Rapid City during his 36 years with the state of South Dakota - all while working with the South Dakota Department of Revenue; and,

Whereas, Alan has worked as a Revenue Agent, Supervisor of Accounts Receivable, Deputy Director of the Sales Tax Division, Special Agent, Team Leader and Director of the Investigative Services Bureau, and a Regional Manager of the Business Tax Division; and,

Whereas, Retirement will afford Alan the opportunity to enjoy leisure time on the ranch, sharing time with friends, but most importantly, spending time with his wife, Judy, along with visits to children and grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Alan's honesty, integrity, and fairness will truly be missed by those with whom he worked and served over his 36 years of faithful and dedicated service to the citizens of the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the contributions of Alan L. Morris to the state of South Dakota during his many years of employment with state government:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 23, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family, colleagues, and friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

ALAN L. MORRIS DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason Gant

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State